OFFERING PLOTS TO LET – OBJECTIVES AND PROCEDURE

in relation to section 1 of “RGS Allotments Letting Agreement and Rules”

1. Objectives (Obj.):

- 1.1 To ensure clarity, consistency, reasonableness and transparency in the process of offering plots.
- 1.2 Tenants, as far as possible, have plots that suit their disposable time, gardening expertise, physical ability and aspirations.
- 1.3 To enable more people to enjoy cultivating a plot, large plots may be split. Consideration will be given to the long-term manageability and integrity of the whole site.
- 1.4 To retain some half-sized plots of 5 rods (The Allotment Association deems a full plot to be 10 rods) for those committed gardeners who have indicated by their efforts that this is a suitable size for them.
- 1.5 To minimise the amount of time that plots are left unlet to ensure minimal loss of rent and to maximise cultivation time.

RGS Letting Agreement and Rules and the above Objectives inform the procedures below

	3	An existing tenant who requests more land (up to the total maximum permitted size of 5 rods) will be added to the bottom of the Primary Waiting List.	Rule Obj. 1.4
	4	A current copy of the Primary Waiting List (without contact details) updated monthly, will be posted on the notice board in the allotment store (see address in 1 above) so accessible to all.	Obj.1.1
	5	If a person on the Primary Waiting List moves out of the borough, he/she will be removed from all waiting lists.	Rule
New potential tenants	1	Vacant plots of 2 to 3.5 rods (inclusive) will usually be offered to the person at the top of the Primary Waiting List.	Obj.1.2 Rule
		A discussion will take place inviting the prospective tenant to consider the suitability of the plot. If the plot is not suitable, the following options should be discussed:	Obj.1.2 Rule

		Procedure	Rule/ Obj. number
		(i) Wait for a plot smaller or larger and for their name to remain at the top of the Primary Waiting List. (ii) Take the plot that is smaller than they wish and to add their name to the bottom of the Primary Waiting List for more land. (iii) Defer taking a plot for a period of time, in which case their name is moved to the Secondary Waiting List.
Secondary Waiting List	1	If a potential tenant has reached the top of the Primary Waiting List but is unable to take a plot at that time their name can be added to the Secondary Waiting List. This potential tenant will contact the RGS when he/she is able to take up a tenancy on a plot.	Rule
	2	When a member on the Secondary Waiting List is ready to take on a plot their name will be added near the top of the Primary Waiting List below those who have been contacted to say they are near to top of the waiting list.	Obj.1.1
	3	If a tenant needs to relinquish his/her plot due to a temporary change in circumstances, the tenant's name can be added to the Secondary Waiting List if desired. However, usually, they would not be permitted to take another plot for 3 years.	Obj.1.2
Existing tenants on the Primary Waiting List for more land	1	Any tenant wanting to increase their land holding to the maximum of 5 rods per household would need to have demonstrated that they have consistently cultivated their current plot to a good standard (as described in the Allotment Letting Agreement, 2018) for at least a year.	Obj.1.4
	2	Plots of 1.5 rods or less are usually only suitable as additional land so would be offered to the existing tenant nearest the top of the Primary Waiting List whose total land would not then exceed 5 rods.  If by taking on a small additional plot the tenant still has a total of less than 5 rods, they can remain at their current position on the Primary Waiting List.	Obj.1.3  Rule
	3	When a 4 to 5 rod plot becomes available it must be offered to an existing tenant on the Primary Waiting List who meets the cultivation criteria described in the Allotment Letting Agreement.  If it is refused, the next existing tenant on the list will be offered the plot and so on. Those tenants refusing the plot will not lose their place on the Primary Waiting list.  If the large plot is not wanted, it will be divided and offered to new potential tenants.	Rule  Obj.1.4  Obj.1.3
Existing tenants changing plots	1	Anyone wishing to move plots must join the Primary Waiting List and when at the top, will be offered the next vacant plot which meets their preferences.	Obj.1.1 Obj.1.2
	2	A tenant may downsize to a smaller plot, or relinquish part of their plot, in consultation with the relevant Site Secretary. If this involves their plot being split, it should result in plots of at least 1.5 rods.	Obj.1.1 Obj.1.2 Obj.1.3
Procedure for showing plots to let	1	Plots will be let according to the Primary Waiting List order. However, if there are delays in contacting people and /or arranging showing the plot(s), then the next name will be called while continuing to contact or arrange a viewing with the previous person on the list.	Obj.1.5
	2	If more than one plot is shown, then a deadline for a decision can be given to avoid any delay.	Obj.1.2 Obj.1.5

Procedure for Plot Holder Partners (PHP)	A PHP who must be a member of RGS (but not necessarily be a resident of Wandsworth) shares a plot with a Plot Holder (tenant). A PHP may inherit the plot if they have worked the plot for 3 years or more and are currently a resident of Wandsworth. PHPs are encouraged to go on the Primary Waiting List in their own right, if they do not share the same household as the Plot Holder.	Obj.1.1 Obj. 1.2 Obj. 1.3
Plot letting issues not covered above	If a need/ request/ circumstance occurs that is not covered by the above, it will be taken to the Plot Letting Subcommittee*. The request must be in writing and circulated to the Plot Letting Subcommittee within three weeks. The request will be considered with reference to the Rules and Objectives. The decision of the Plot Letting Subcommittee will then be taken to the full committee for final approval. Any tenant may appeal in writing against a decision made by the committee. The Appeal should be made in writing, giving full details, within three weeks of the Committee's decision, to Head of Parks, Enable Leisure and Culture. Decisions made by the Head of Parks are binding.	Rule Objectives
